DECLARATION OF DEFENDANT CHRISTOPHER WATSON

CHRISTOPHER WATSON, the undersigned, hereby declares and says:

1. I am Christopher Watson and have been named as a Defendant in this action. I respectfully submit this declaration in opposition to plaintiffs' motion to enforce settlement and for sanctions and in further support of defendant's motion to enforce the terms of the July 10, 2008 settlement and to award me the costs and attorney's fees incurred since July 11, 2008 as a result of plaintiff's unconscionable efforts to thwart the settlement.

2. I hereby incorporate by reference my August 14, 2008 Declaration submitted in support of the motion to enforce the terms of the settlement and award me costs and attorney's fees incurred since July 11, 2008. I submit this additional declaration to counter certain false statements in Mr. Francis Wilde's declaration opposing the instant motion.

3. I also submit this declaration to request that this Court issue an Order on the instant motion as soon as reasonably possible because resolution of this motion could impact processing of disaster claims for the Federal Emergency Management Agency ("FEMA"), a division of the United States Department of Homeland Security.

4. On July 10, 2000, I personally appeared before the Hon. Gabriel W. Gorenstein at a settlement conference. At no time in open court in my presence did Francis Wilde state that he had instructed his employees of Shea Development Corp., Bravera Inc. or IP Holdings of Nevada Corp. (collectively, "Shea") to wipe the source code and software from the business equipment in response to letters from my former attorneys. Indeed, as explained to the Court, I had requested that Shea deliver certain business equipment as part of the settlement precisely because it contained source codes and other intellectual property owned by my company, Intellectus LLC ("Intellectus"). When this was explained to the Court, Mr. Wilde exclaimed that he did not want Intellectus' source code or any of its derivative intellectual property. Shea's delivery of the equipment "wiped clean" is a clear breach of the settlement agreement.

5. Furthermore, for the following reasons, I request that the Court issue an Order resolving the instant motion as soon as reasonably possible.

6. Presently, Shea is processing a portion of the national disaster claims for FEMA.

7. On October 1, 2008, Intellectus, operating under a recently awarded Homeland Security Contract HSFEHE-0149, will assume responsibility for inbound processing of all FEMA disaster claims and will also be responsible for outbound printing of disaster claims forms and other materials of vital urgency to disaster claims victims.

8. Intellectus is working to transition the processing of federal disaster claims from Shea and other entities to Intellectus. Shea's performance of all terms under the Settlement Agreement is critical to the smooth transition. This transition formed a key part of why I and my companies agreed to significantly compromise and accept far less compensation than what Shea owed. In this respect, payment of the sums due under the Settlement Agreement, as well as delivery of all the business equipment and the release of the non-competes described in the Settlement Agreement, will facilitate the transition of the FEMA disaster claim processing to Intellectus.

9. Currently, the United States is operating under multiple disaster declarations and more federal declarations of national emergency are expected as a result of hurricane activity. Thus, Shea's activities in violating the Settlement Agreement could impair Intellectus' responsibility for inbound processing of disaster claims.

10. In addition to violating the settlement reached on July 10, 2008, Shea's contumacious behavior has posed a very real and urgent threat to the processing of disaster assistance claims nationwide.

11. Based upon the foregoing, as well as all other papers submitted in support of this motion, I respectfully request that the Court issue an Order directing Plaintiffs to comply with the July 10, 2008 Settlement Agreement by dates certain and awarding me my attorneys fees incurred since July 11, 2008.

I declare that the foregoing is correct under the penalties of perjury. Executed this 8th day of September 2008.
